CONTEST

The Neural Data Processing Contest will be held during the MetroXRAINE conference in Rome (National Research Council Headquarters) on Friday, Oct. 28 at 9 am.

The Contest has been though for both M.Sc. and Ph.D. students who want to test and develop their skills and competences in data analysis concerning emotional conditions and motor imagery.
A cash prize of 500 euros from ab medica s.p.a. will be given to the participant who will be able to perform the best classification on EEG datasets acquired through the Helmate headset provided by ab medica.
Special fee of 30 euros for M.Sc. students.
Remote participation is allowed only for M.Sc. students from universities outside the Lazio Region.
